

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Minutes of the Meeting of the Territorial Bar Association of Utah, held in January and February, 1894.

Meeting of attorneys at the Federal Court room, Monday evening, January 8th, 1894. Called to order by Elmer B. Jones, who stated the object of the meeting to be the organization of a Territorial Bar Association.

B. F. Montgomery was elected temporary chairman and Elmer B. Jones temporary secretary. Col. Kaighn asked if the proposed organization would in any way antagonize the local Bar Association. On being assured that it would not, he moved that a committee of five be appointed by the chairman on permanent organization, constitution and by-laws. Carried.

Thereupon the chairman appointed J. G. Sutherland, F. S. Richards and R. B. Shepard, of the Salt Lake Bar, Wm. H. King, of the Provo bar, and L. R. Rogers, of the Ogden bar, as such committee.

Motion was then made that when the meeting adjourned it be to re-meet at the Supreme Court room, Salt Lake City, on Thursday, January 11th, at 7:30 p. m. Carried. The Secretary was instructed to have notices of such meeting published in all the daily papers in Salt Lake, Ogden and Provo. On motion, meeting adjourned.

ELMER B. JONES,
Temporary Secretary.

SALT LAKE CITY, January 8th, 1894.

SUPREME COURT ROOM,

Salt Lake City, Jan. 11th, 1894.

Meeting called to order by B. F. Montgomery, chairman.

The report of the committee on constitution, by-laws and permanent organization was called for and Judge J. G. Sutherland, chairman, submitted a constitution and by-laws, which was discussed at great length, and adopted with the following amendments: "That special meetings may be called at any time by the Executive Council or the President, and must be called when a request, signed by fifteen members of the Association is made therefor; the notice of such special meeting shall be by publication in all the daily papers of Salt Lake, Ogden and Provo, or by personal notices sent by the Secretary to each member of the Association. In either case not less than three days notice of the time and place of holding such meeting, shall be given."

On motion, the rules were suspended and Judge J. G. Sutherland was elected President of the Association by acclamation.

On motion the rules were again suspended and the following named Vice-Presidents were elected, one from each Judicial District:

Samuel R. Thurman, Provo, First District.

Presley Denny, Beaver, Second District.

Charles W. Bennett, Salt Lake City, Third District.

James N. Kimball, Ogden, Fourth District.

On motion, the rules were again suspended and Richard B. Shepard, of Salt Lake City, was elected Secretary by acclamation, and Elmer B. Jones, Treasurer.

It was then moved that a ballot be taken on the election of an Executive Council and that the five persons receiving the highest number of ballots be declared elected.

The ballot was then ordered and Waldemar Van Cott and Wm. M. Bradley were appointed tellers of election, which resulted in the selection of Parley L. Williams, John A. Marshall, F. S. Richards, E. M. Allison and Wm. H. King, as such Council.

It was then moved that the rules be suspended, and the President authorized to appoint a committee on grievances.

On motion, thirty days were given to all attorneys desiring to become charter members of the Association in which to sign the roll and pay the membership fee, moved that the meeting adjourn for one week, and that the next regular meeting be held on the first Monday in June, 1894, at the Federal Court room, Salt Lake City, at 7:30 p. m., at which delegates to the American Bar Association be elected.

The President then announced that he would report his selection of a committee on grievances, at the next meeting.

On motion, meeting adjourned to January 18th, 1894, at 7:30 p. m.

ELMER B. JONES,
Temporary Secretary.

SUPREME COURT ROOM,
Salt Lake City, Utah,
January 18th, 1894.

Meeting called to order, pursuant to adjournment, by J. G. Sutherland, President. There not being a quorum present, meeting adjourned sine die.

The President announced before adjournment that he appointed as members of the committee on grievances, Thomas Marshall and C. S. Varian, of the Salt Lake City bar, and J. H. MacMillan, of the Ogden bar. RICHARD B. SHEPARD,
Secretary.

SUPREME COURT ROOM,
Salt Lake City, Utah,
February 16th, 1894.

The Association met pursuant to the call of the President, a quorum being present.

Upon motion, the regular order of business was dispensed with and the business named in the call was taken up and disposed of. Mr. Kimball, of Ogden, moved that Section 3330 of the Compiled Laws of Utah be amended by striking out after the word court in the second line, all words to the word or in the third line, and that this Association recommend to the Utah Legislature the passage of such amendment. Carried.

Mr. Shepard moved that a committee of three be appointed by the President to draft an attorneys' lien bill and present the same to the Territorial Legislature and request on behalf of the Association its passage. Carried.

The President appointed as such committee A. N. Cherry, A. T. Schroeder, and Walter Murphy.

Mr. Grant H. Smith moved that a committee of five be appointed by the President (one of said committee to be the President,) to place before the ways and means committee of the Territorial Legislature in a proper manner the reason why an appropriation should be made for the Territorial Library. Carried.

The President appointed as such committee J. G. Sutherland, T. J. Anderson, John A. Marshall, F. B. Stephens and Elmer B. Jones.

Mr. Elmer B. Jones moved that a committee of five be appointed by the President, to draft a bill for an Attorney's Docket fee and present the same to the Territorial Legislature and request its passage.

Mr. F. B. Stephens moved as a substitute that the committee be left without limitation in order that they might prepare a bill without stating the amount or fees. The substitute was adopted.

The President appointed as such committee, C. W. Bennett, Thomas Marshall, J. W. Judd, H. P. Henderson and Waldemar VanCott.

Mr. Kimball moved that a committee of five be appointed to draft rules for the regulation of appeals to the Supreme Court. Mr. Schroeder moved to amend by adding:

"And draft rules for the District Courts of the Territory and present the same to the respective Courts and request their adoption."

The motion as amended was adopted.

Moved that the drafting and presenting of Rules be referred to the committee appointed to draft bill for Attorney's Docket fee. Carried.

Moved, that the committee on Attorney's Docket fee bill is instructed to confer with the proper legislative committees regarding fees of District Clerks, U. S. Marshal, Sheriffs, Constables and Justices of the Peace. Carried.

On motion, the offices of Executive Council filled by Wm. H. King and of Vice President filled by Presley Denny were declared vacant.

Mr. Grant H. Smith was elected a member of the Executive Council in place of Wm. H. King.

Mr. M. M. Warner of Provo was elected Vice President in place of Presley Denny.

On motion the Treasurer was instructed to pay C. M. Neilson five dollars for services for lighting and caring for place of meeting.

Moved that the addresses and discussions that usually take place at the regular annual meetings be held at the adjourned meeting of the Association in June, 1894, and that the Executive Council is hereby instructed to designate such persons, etc, under Article 9 of the Constitution, to deliver such addresses.

Carried.

On motion adjourned to meet on March 1st, 1894, at 7.30 P. M. at Supreme Court room, in Salt Lake City, Utah.

RICHARD B. SHEPARD,

Secretary.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS
TERRITORIAL BAR ASSOCIATION OF UTAH.

CONSTITUTION.

ART. 1. The name of the Association shall be The Territorial Bar Association of Utah.

ART. 2. The object of the Association shall be the elevation of the standard of professional learning and integrity; to inspire the greatest degree of respect for the efforts and influence of the Bar in the administration of justice; and to cultivate fraternal relations among its members.

ART. 3. The officers of the Association shall be a President, a Vice-President from each Judicial District, Secretary, Treasurer, an Executive Council of five members, and a Committee on Grievances consisting of three members, which officers shall be elected annually and hold until successors are elected and accept.

ART. 4. The President shall deliver an address at each regular annual meeting of the Association, and the duties of the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer shall be such as usually pertain to those officers respectively.

ART. 5. Regular meetings of the Association shall be annually held at Salt Lake City on the second Monday in January, at 7:30 p. m. at the Supreme Court room, for the election of officers, and for addresses and discussions; also for the transaction of any other business of the Association. The President and the members of the Executive Council and Committee on Grievances shall be elected at the annual meeting by ballot.

Special meetings may be called at any time by the Executive Council or the President, and must be called when a request signed by fifteen members of the Association is made therefor. And the notice of such special meeting shall be by publication in the daily papers of Salt Lake, Ogden and Provo, or by personal notice sent by the Secretary to each member of the Association, in either case not less than three days' notice of the time and place of holding such meeting shall be given.

ART. 6. A quorum for the transaction of business shall be twenty members.

ART. 7. No person shall be admitted to membership in this Association who is not a member of the bar of the Supreme Court of Utah.

ART. 8. All applications for membership at the annual meeting shall be referred to the Executive Council, who shall report on the same to the Association, with their recommendation, and no person shall be admitted to membership except by a two-thirds vote of the members present. During the interval between annual meetings, applications for membership may be determined by the Executive Council. Each member shall pay an admission fee of five dollars, and annual dues after the first year of three dollars. Any member may be expelled on the vote of a majority of the members of the Association.

ART. 9. The Executive Council shall manage the affairs of the Association subject to the Constitution and By-Laws; it shall also on or before the first day of May of each year, designate such number of members, not exceeding six, to prepare and deliver or read at the next annual meeting thereafter, appropriate addresses or papers upon subjects chosen and assigned by the Council, to each of such members as may be so selected for such purpose.

ART. 10. All addresses delivered and papers read before the Association, a copy of which is furnished by the author, shall be lodged with the Secretary. The annual address of the President, the reports of committees and all proceedings of the annual meeting shall be printed; but no other address delivered or paper read shall be printed except by order of the Executive Council.

ART. 11. The Committee on Grievances shall be charged with the investigation of all complaints against members of the Association, members of the Bar and officers of the Courts, and also of all complaints which may be made to them in matters affecting the members of the legal profession, the practice of law and the administration of justice, and shall report thereon to the Association with such recommendations as they may deem proper. The proceedings of such committee shall be secret.

ART. 12. If a vacancy occurs in the office of President, the Executive Council may designate a Vice-President to fill his place. Said Council shall also fill any vacancy that may occur in the office of Secretary or Treasurer; and said Council and said Committee on Grievances may respectively fill any vacancy that may occur therein.

ART. 13. The Treasurer shall render an account annually to the Executive Council, and said Council shall report the same to the Association at its annual meeting.

ART. 14. The Executive Council shall cause to be printed, such number of the Constitution and By-Laws of the Association, with the roll of the members of the Association, as it shall deem best, not exceeding one thousand copies, and shall
